A Little About The Cast and Crew

Calvin Alden (Police Constable Smith) is a senior English literature major and theatre minor at UAF. His theatre credits include SDA's Zoo Story & Jolly and UAF's Reckless & Cabaret. This is the second time he has been in a production of The Threepenny Opera. C3PO!

Eve Bird (Polly Peachum) is a sophomore music major at UAF. Her most recent performance in a musical was as "Alice" in FLOT's Riversong. Eve graduated from North Pole High School in '95. Her favorite roles there included "Sarah Brown" in Guys & Dolls and "Marian" in The Musicman. She hopes someday to sing opera!

Sean Brean (Macheath) is a junior music major at UAF pursuing a degree in music performance and education. His theatre credits include The Scarf and The Abduction of Europa. This is his first production with Theatre UAF.

*Nell Chapman (Molly) is a sophomore theatre major at UAF. Her theatre credits include UAF's Bacchae, Reckless, The Island, & Comedy of Errors. Nell is planning on moving this summer so this may be her last performance at Theatre UAF. Her final adieu: "Love to any and all, HEY ITZZA PIZZA BOY!"

Eric Dickman (Ed) is a music major at UAF because he hopes it will lead to a good job. He attended North Pole High School where he performed in Annie, The Martian Chronicles, Cyrano de Bergerac, Oklahoma, and The Hobbit. He also played a soldier in FDA's production of Mother Courage And Her Children. His hobbies are snow boarding and bowling, at which he is not that great, yet.

Steve Dixon ()

Annie Dobbs (Dolly) began taking classes in theatre with the Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival and has continued her training here at Theatre UAF. Last semester she designed the lights for SDA's Dasvedanya Mama. This is her first acting role.

Genevieve Elterman (Assistant Stage Manager) is a senior English major and theatre minor at UAF. Her theatre credits include UAF's Jesus Christ Superstar, FLOT's Into the Woods and FDA's The Hostage. She plans to graduate this Spring and after that who knows: a masters, teaching, traveling, getting a mortgage and husband hunting.

Tony Evans (Matt of the Mint) is a senior theatre major at UAF. He was most recently seen on the UAF stage as the god "Dionysus" in Bacchae. Since then he has changed his form and has taken the likeness of a second-rate hoodlum for this play.

Karen Gaborik (Stage Manager) was recently seen as a frenzied Dionysian worshipper in UAF's Bacchae. She is back for her second Theatre UAF production, this time as the goddess of theatre: the stage manager. She would like to thank the cast and crew of Threepenny Opera, as well as the Theatre UAF faculty and staff for making this experience yet another excellent adventure!

Rosey Gallagher (Old Whore) has studied both voice and acting, and has dabbled in writing, producing and directing. She has worked in both New York and Hollywood for the likes of Hal Ashby, Andrew Braunsberg, Mace Newfield, and United Artists. She currently works for UAF Statewide Systems.

*Brett Good (Tiger Brown) is a junior theatre major at UAF. His theatre credits include UAF's Bacchae, Reckless, Tartuffe and Cabaret, and SDA's The Actor's Nightmare and Line. He would like to dedicate this show to happiness, and the eternal search for it: "Bit by bit, so may a journey be complete."

Dustin C. Grimes (Sound Designer) is a third year UAF Journalism major with a minor in Theatre. When not in the theatre, he can be found writing for the student newspaper, the Sun Star, or recreating the middle ages as a member of the society for Creative Anackronism. Dustin has also designed the sound for UAF's Reckless and aided with the sound for The Island.

*Gus Grindel (Rev. Kim, Policeman) graduated from North Pole High in 1996 and is a freshman at UAF. His theatre credits include NPH's The Martian Chronicles, Annie, Alice in Wonderland, Oklahoma, The Hobbit, and The Music Man. He was also in FDA's Mother Courage and her Children, and UAF's Bacchae. He is currently taking acting classes at UAF and enjoying every minute of them!

Lucile Hackett (Betty) recently completed her M.A. in English at UAF. Before coming to Fairbanks in 1992 she completed a BA in music education from Indiana University. Her most recent acting role was as "Tzeitel" in FDA's Fiddler on the Roof. Lucile teaches music to about 600 kids a week through the Fairbanks School District and directs the choir at the University Community Presbyterian Church. In her spare time she is an avid skier! Lucile lives with her husband Dan, dog Seppa, and 2 cats.

Notes From the Director

John Hopkins, Musical Director.

John Hopkins received his Doctor of Musical Arts (D.M.A.) degree in Vocal Performance and Pedagogy from The University of Iowa. In addition to directing the UAF Opera Workshop at the University of Alaska Fairbanks, he directs the Choir of the North, the Alaska Camerata and teaches private voice.

While at the University of Iowa, John performed approximately fifteen operatic and musical roles. Before graduate school, he sang for one year with the chorus of the Hessisches Staatstheater in Wiesbaden, Germany, his first real association with the nuts and bolts of opera production. During his tour of military duty, he was a member of the U.S. Air Force Bands and directed the Voices of S.A.C., the vocal show ensemble of the Strategic Air Command Band of Offutt AFB, Nebraska.

With the UAF Opera Workshop, John has directed many scene recitals as well as complete works. Most notable was the UA 75th Anniversary production of Verdi's La Traviata with the assistance of UAF Theatre. Recent productions include Three Miniature Operas by Darius Milhaud, The Scarf, by Lee Hoiby, Impresario by Mozart, Comedy on the Bridge by Bohuslav Martinu and Gian Carlo Menotti's The Telephone and The Old Maid and the Thief. Under his direction the UAF Opera Workshop collaborated with the Fairbanks Light Opera Theatre for production of Leoncavallo's I Pagliacci and Puccini's Gianni Schicchi.

John's first appearance in Fairbanks as music director was with the Fairbanks Light Opera Theatre for Annie Get Your Gun. Since then he has directed to help serve the community.

Theatre UAF donates tickets to our performances to many community-service groups including the Fairbanks North Star Borough Senior Citizen Activity Program. For more information about that group, please call 459-1000.

On March 19, 1994, Theatre UAF was proud to salute the man who formed the Theatre Department at UAF; Mr. Lee H. Salisbury, by renaming the Fine Arts Theatre after him. At that time we started our "Buy a Seat" drive to raise money for renovations to the "house" of the theatre. If you would like to contribute to this event, please send contributions to Theatre UAF, P.O. Box 755700 / Fairbanks, AK 99775-5700 Attn.: Renovation.

Theatre UAF Faculty and Staff

Anatoly Antohin, Playwright and Director: Anatoly has directed many shows at UAF. He received his MFA from the Moscow Institute of Cinematography, and won several awards in drama. His plays have been produced in many European countries. In the USA, he has taught and directed at the University of Connecticut, New York University, and Hollins College in Virginia. The last show he directed at UAF was Reckless.

Steve Cady, Costume Shop Supervisor: Steve returns to the theatre world after a lengthy stint with the Internal Revenue Service. He formerly worked at the Magic Theatre in San Francisco and the Alaska Repertory Theatre in Anchorage, amongst others. He has been sewing for over 35 years, and has the calluses to prove it.

Amy Fautland, Theatre UAF's Dept. Administrative Assistant and Box Office Manager: Amy holds a degree in theatre and education from Biola University. She has a background in both technical theatre and acting. Besides running the box office she is an instructor for the UAF Summer Fine Arts Camp.

Gorden O. Hedahl, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and a professor of theatre at UAF: Gorden holds degrees in speech and theatre from North Dakota, and a Ph.D. in Theatre Arts from Minnesota. He served twenty-two years with the University of Wisconsin System. He directed Noises Off at UAF during the 1993-'94 Season, and The Mystery of Edwin Drood in April of 1996.

John Hopkins, Musical Director. See John's complete Biography at the end of the Directors Notes earlier in this playbill.

Theresa John, Co-Director of Tuma Theatre: Theresa is an Assistant Professor of Alaska Native Studies. Along with teaching Alaska Native Performance she runs the Alaska Native Elders program. She has been involved with Tuma since 1978 as a performer, dancer and advisor. For Tuma she directed Agayu and co-directed Naam and Inua. She is currently developing a one woman performance which will premiere at UAF this May.

Judy Kreith, Dance and Movement Guest Lecturer: Judy recently moved to Fairbanks from Boulder Colorado. She has an MFA in Dance Education from Stanford University. Her choreographic credits include Stanford University Rams Head productions of West Side Story and Jesus Christ Superstar.

Tara Maginnis, PhD, Costume Designer: Tara is the author of numerous articles on costume in "TD+T", "Theatre Crafts", "Costume" and "The Lady's Gallery". She is also the Webmistress of the largest costume site on the web "The Costumer's Manifesto" (<http://icecube.acf-lab.alaska.edu/~ftmm1>) and of the UA-AAUP/AFT Union web site (<http://www.alaska.net/~acadme>).

Kade Mendelowitz, Lighting Designer / Business Manager: Kade came to UAF after teaching at Smith College in Massachusetts. Originally from New York, Kade loves the variety of arts Fairbanks has to offer. He recently designed the lighting for FDA's Barking Sharks
