informed also. (REQUIRED to attend at least one during the year)

- Attending school sponsored activities after school hours (open houses, after-school clubs or sports, family math night, etc.)
  - Grade level planning meetings (REQUIRED to attend if they occur during school hours and do not conflict with UAF coursework)
  - In-services that include interaction with staff members
  - IEP or intervention meetings (REQUIRED to attend a minimum of one during the year, and all others held during school hours provided they do not conflict with UAF coursework)
  - Parent-teacher conferences (REQUIRED to attend unless UAF coursework conflicts)
- Letters, phone conversations or e-mails made to parents that involved collaborating to improve student performance

5. Standard 5: Reflecting on the assessment strategies you have utilized and integrated into your units and lessons this year, and on the approaches you have used for looking at and learning from student work, what area of assessment do you feel most comfortable and confident with? What assessment concept is still confusing to you, or do you find yourself struggling with the years of teaching, and why? What area of assessment would you like to continue to learn more about for future use in your classroom?

6. Standard 6: Reflecting on your experiences in the classroom this year, how has your ability to effectively manage a classroom changed? What has been your biggest challenge in classroom

Overview:

After gathering ideas and information from your textbook, "The Parent Handbook" and "The Parent Handbook"

- Think through the system you will use and describe it in as much detail as possible. If you are going to use a newsletter, what information will you include? How often will you send it home? If students are going to create the newsletter, how will you organize that activity?

A sample newsletter or weekly letter home would be great (but is not required)

Relative to competency 7-3 Demonstrate collaboration with families to set goals for students and improve student learning:

Describe a minimum of two strategies you will use to incorporate parents and families into your classroom for the purpose of improving student learning (note: this is different from the parent volunteer opportunities described below). Parents and Teachers Working Together is a wonderful
