JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED

The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. If you ask for a change in # of credits, explain why; are you increasing the amount of material covered in the class? If you drop a prerequisite, is it because the material is covered elsewhere? If course is changing to stacked (400/600), explain higher level of effort and performance required on part of students earning graduate credit. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed change and explain what has been done to ensure that the quality of the course is not compromised as a result.

The CDFS program has been looking carefully at the courses provided and is currently involved in a major program change that will promote better opportuni

Course Description:

This course provides the opportunity for exploration of infant-toddler beginning language and early literacy development as it considers research from multiple fields. Looks at the importance of oral language development and early explorations with literacy while considering principles and practices that provide support of families and culture.

ECE 421 is required for the Child Development and Family Studies BA program within the Infant and Toddler concentration.

Course Goal:

Student Learning Objectives/Outcomes:

Also, create a contact with your preferred email and other contact information. Hint you can also attach a current image of yourself so we each have a fact that goes with the audio voice. (50 pts)

Making literacy materials:

For this activity you will need to design and create a book for each of the three ages within the infant and toddler spectrum.

Write a reflection describing the reasons why you chose the specific design of books for each of the ages.

Detail guidelines will be provided on the course Blackboard site. (Course obj. a, b, c) (NAEYC standards 1.c, 4.b, 4.d, 5.c) (100 pts)

Parent Training:

Develop a 1-hour training designed around parent needs for understanding of developmentally appropriate expectations and strategies for language and literacy development. Attention to cultural backgrounds of specified audience will be part of training.

Though not mandatory, this could be an interesting addition to your final curriculum project as you work with parents.

(Course obj. a, c and e)(NAEYC standards 1.a, 2.a, 2.b) (50 pts)

Make a Commercial:

Each student will use their knowledge and understanding of early language and literacy development to develop and record (on video) a 2-3 minute synopsis of how early literacy and language is important to the first three years of life.

Commercial videos will be posted on the Bb site and viewed by all class peers.

Guidelines for ideas will be placed on the course Blackboard site. (Course Obj a, b) (NAEYC standards 1.a, 1.b, 2.b, 4.a, 4.d) (50 pts)

Community Documentation Board:

Develop a in depth documentation board out of the compilation of information you have received during your class. Your plan would be to explain and reflects upon children typical progress through the stages of babbling to talking to early literacy.

Detail guidelines will be provided on the course Blackboard site with examples of Documentation boards. (4 hours)(Course outcomes: a, b, d, b) (NAEYC: 1.a, 1.b, 1.c, 2.b, 2.c, 4.b, 4.d, 5.c) (100 pts) This field assignment is to be included as part of the final curriculum project.

Detail guidelines will be provided on the course Blackboard site. (2 hours) (Course obj a, b, c) (NAEYC Standards: 1.a, 1.b, 4.b, 4.d, 5.c)

This field assignment is part of the final curriculum project. Include the child you have specifically chosen to work with as one of the children you participate with in this assignment.

Environment:

Visit 2 environments where infants and/or toddlers spend time. Consider how the environment supports language and literacy development, inclusionary of routines, environmental print and planned activities. Within your reflection, discuss what you have observed and how it fits into the spectrum of environments that appropriately support the developmental needs of infants and toddlers around language and literacy development.

(2 hours) (Course obj a, b, c) (NAEYC Standards: 1.a, 1.b, 4.b, 4.d, 5.c)

This field assignment is part of your final curriculum project. Use information gained through the 2 environments you have visited to help you design the plan for the child and family you have specifically chosen to work with.

The Child Development and Family Studies program will work with the Office of Disability Services to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities. Disability Services provide a variety of services to assure equal access for all students. Interpreting services, educational assistants, note taking, and exam accommodations for students are the most frequently provided accommodations.

The Office of Disability Services implements the American with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that the UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials. (203 WHIT, 474-7043) I will work with the Office of Disabilities Services to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.

Library Services for off campus students

http://library.uaf.edu/offcampus

Off-Campus Library Services is a unit set up to serve rural UAF students and faculty who do not have access to appropriate information resources in their town or village. We work in support of The College of Rural & Community Development and The Center for Distance Education and Independent Learning.

We can supply your information needs for the courses you are taking. For example, if a research paper is required in the teleconference or correspondence course that you are taking, you can contact us, explain your information need, and we will send library materials to you so that you can write your paper. Contact us at Off-Campus Services, Elmer E. Rasmuson Library
