B. Credit by Exam, cont.

Current policy

"A course challenged for credit cannot duplicate a course for which credit has already been granted or in which the student is currently enrolled."

Suggested (earlier) by registrar "A course challenged for credit cannot duplicate a course for which credit has already been granted, an F grade has been received, or the student is currently enrolled." Lots of discussion about this lashte...anything wrong with retaking a failed course w/ test as long as the department is willing to do so???

the testing website includes the following: "It is up to the discretion of the department or instructor to decide which courses can be challenged, testing method and grading procedures." Seems like this should be in the catalog language

Form itself states: "and may not be used to replace a previously graded course for which you received credit" again, this aught either be in the catalog or not.... Is there anything wrong with replacing grade with test grade????
