Current University Regulations	Proposed Revised language
Oral Communication Skills	Oral Communication Skills

DRAFT MOTION:

The Curricular Affairs Committeenoves that the Faculty Senate submit following changes to the UAF general education policy for a faculty vote of approval:

General Education Requirements

Studentswill takethe following:

- One coursein the Natural Science (4 credits; includes a lab)
- One coursein Mathematics(3–4 credits)
- One coursein the Arts (3 credits)
- Two courses the Social Science (6 credits)
- Two coursesn the Humanities(6 credits)
- Two coursesin Writing (6 credits; currently coursessatisfying this requirementare English111X, English211X/English213X)
- One coursein Communication(3 credits; current courses that satisfy this requirement are COMM 121X/COMM 131X/COMM 141X)
- One Quantitative Literacy course; anywhereacross the curriculum (3-4 credits)
- LS 101 as a pre- or co-requisite with

DRAFT MOTION

=============

The Curricular Affairs Committee moves that the Faculty Senate submit the following changes to the UAF general education policy for a faculty vofteepproval:

Each student must take one course which possesses each of these attributes:

- (E) Civic Engagemen(3 credits)
- (A) Alaska and the Circumpolar North (3 credits)
- (D) Intercultural Competence and Diversity (3 credits)

Total credits in addition to the GER to satisfy this requirement: 0-9 credits Coursestaken to satisfy these requirements ay